

A Joyful Prelude to Independence Day at M.K. DAV Public School, Daltonganj

The spirit of Independence Day began to take shape on the school campus as the young students of Classes I and II dressed up as inspiring figures from India's history and brought a lovely burst of colour and enthusiasm to the celebration.

The children came dressed as Rani Lakshmi Bai, Shaheed Bhagat Singh, Raja Ram Mohan Roy, Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose, Mahatma Gandhi, Chandrashekhar Azad, Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru and Dr. B. R. Ambedkar. With cheerful faces, colourful costumes and great excitement, they proudly portrayed these National Heroes. Their innocent expressions and confident little introductions made the activity especially delightful. As the children continued to share a few more words about the icons they had chosen, their eager voices brought a lovely blend of excitement and patriotic joy to the occasion.

For the young learners, the activity offered an engaging way to become familiar with some of the important names associated with India's freedom struggle. Seeing their classmates dressed up as India's revered sons and daughters, made the stories of the past feel closer and easier to understand. The children thoroughly enjoyed the experience and participated with great eagerness.

The Honourable Principal MRS. INDRANI CHATTERJEE appreciated the lively participation of the young students and said that such activities allow history to reach children in a language they naturally enjoy. She observed that dressing up as a great Indian and speaking a few words about that life can turn a historical name into a story a child can remember. She encouraged the students to keep asking questions to learn about India's past and carry the pride of their country in their hearts. She affirmed that these early glimpses into India's history can kindle a profound love for the Nation and inspire children to grow with pride in its rich heritage.
