

Chant, Create and Inspire: A CCA Celebration for Std. III–V at M.K DAV Public School Daltonganj

M.K DAV Public School, Daltonganj organised enriching CCA activities for Std. III–V including an Om Chanting Competition, Mantras Recitation, Poster Making Competition and Slogan Writing Competition with the aim of nurturing values, discipline and creativity among students.

The Om chanting and Mantra recitation created a calm and positive atmosphere reflecting focus and reverence among the young learners. The poster making and slogan writing competitions showcased colourful imagination, thoughtful ideas and confident expression. Students participated with great enthusiasm, making the programmes lively and meaningful.

A prize distribution ceremony was conducted to appreciate the winners and encourage all participants. The students were applauded for their sincere efforts, cheerful involvement and willingness to learn.

Extending her appreciation, the Honourable Principal Mrs. INDRANI CHATTERJEE extolled the joyful participation of the students and highlighted that activities such as chanting and recitation help develop calmness, concentration and positive values from an early age. She added that creative competitions encourage imagination and self-expression which are essential for building confidence. She motivated the students to participate wholeheartedly reminding them that every effort is valuable and acknowledged teachers for their dedicated guidance in nurturing minds.
