

Investiture Ceremony 2026: A New Chapter of Commitment and Leadership

The atmosphere at M.K. DAV Public School, Chianki, Daltonganj has been imbued with a sense of pride and honour as the institution has successfully conducted its much-awaited Investiture Ceremony . This significant occasion has gone beyond the mere conferment of titles, as it has marked the formal delegation of duties, with the newly elected student council embarking on an inspiring journey of leadership.

The newly elected Student Council embodies the Institution's commitment to nurture capable and responsible leaders. Rishabh Raj Singh has been entrusted with the esteemed position of Head Boy with Arpit Dev Shukla serving with equal dedication as the Deputy Head Boy . Among the girls, Akanksha Tiwari has assumed the prestigious role of Head Girl ably supported by Anika Mittal as the Deputy Head Girl setting a commendable example for their peers.

In the realm of sports, Shivam Kumar has been accorded the honour of serving as Sports Secretary (Boys) with Adarsh Prasad as the Deputy Sports Secretary to provide his consistent support. Representing the girls, Kanishka Raj Sinha has been elevated to the position of Sports Secretary, with Ojasya Singh as her deputy , upholding the values of teamwork and perseverance.

The cultural sphere, vibrant and expressive, has found its leadership in Pratyush Chandra as Cultural Secretary (Boys) with Pranav Tiwari as his supportive deputy . Among the girls, Anokhi Sinha has been conferred with the esteemed role of Cultural Secretary , with Anindita Singh as Deputy Cultural Secretary guiding the Institution's creative pursuits with enthusiasm and finesse.

The House Council , a linchpin of school spirit and camaraderie, has been strengthened under the leadership of the House Captains — Vaibhav Sahay (M.N.D Grover), Tanmay Ranjan (Sri Anand Swami), Krishnakant (Rig), Sai Varenya (Yazur) , Atul Dubey (Sam) and Aryan Kumar (Atharva) representing the boys' cohort and Swastika (M.N.D Grover), Sneha Kumari (Sri Anand Swami), Puravi Agarwal (Rig), Samiksha Balaji (Yazur), Adrija Roy Choudhary (Sam) and Harshita Singh (Atharva) representing the girls' cohort. They are bolstered by the Deputy House Captains — Arpit Raj Pandey (M.N.D Grover), Gambhir Kumar (Sri Anand Swami), Shivam Goyal (Rig), Snehal Saumya (Yazur), Jatin Tiwary (Sam) and Adarsh Kachap (Atharva) for the Boys and Anjana Kumari (M.N.D Grover),Ruchita Pathak (Sri Anand Swami), Vanshika Jain (Rig), Haya Azad (Yazur), Ramanpreet Kaur (Sam) and Akriti Joyce (Atharva) for the Girls working in close tandem to cultivate an environment where disciplined effort ignites a collective passion for excellence.

These young leaders have taken the oath of office pledging to adhere to the principles and ethos of the institution. The formal pinning of badges and the handing over of responsibilities have symbolized the transition from intent to execution.

The Honourable Principal, MRS. INDRANI CHATTERJEE views the Investiture Ceremony as a seminal milestone that transcends tradition, actively cultivating leadership and instilling a profound sense of stewardship within the student body. She asserts that the ceremony serves as a vital arena for students to embrace accountability and grasp the nuance of leadership through purposeful action. In her address, she exhorts the newly appointed leaders to discharge their responsibilities with absolute integrity and a focused vision. Urging them to lead by example, she reminds them to be worthy of the collective trust they now carry. She further emphasizes that their conduct should be a living reflection of the institution's ethos serving as a source of emulation for their peers.
