

Celebrating the Legacy of Mahatma Hansraj at MKDAV Public School, Daltonganj

The birth anniversary of Mahatma Hansraj was celebrated with great reverence and enthusiasm at MKDAV Public School, Daltonganj. On this occasion, the school community paid heartfelt tribute to his invaluable contributions and dedication to the field of education. The programme began with the ceremonial lighting of the lamp, followed by the offering of floral tributes.

Mahatma Hansraj (1864–1938) was a pioneer of Indian education and the founder of the D.A.V. (Dayanand Anglo-Vedic) movement. A devoted follower of Arya Samaj and Swami Dayanand Saraswati, he dedicated his life to education, social reform, and selfless service to society.

A special highlight of the programme was Abhigyan Mondal of Class 3E, who beautifully dressed up in the guise of Mahatma Hansraj, adding charm and significance to the celebration.

Our honorable Principal, Mrs. Indrani Chatterjee, focused on the life history and teachings of Mahatma Hansraj. She emphasized his role as a visionary educationist and a key force behind the establishment of the DAV institutions. She encouraged students to imbibe his values of discipline, dedication, and service, and to strive for excellence in all walks of life.

The programme concluded on a positive note, leaving everyone motivated and inspired

