

M.K. DAV Public School, Daltonganj Celebrates the Idea and Ideal of a Free India Through the Spirit of Patriotism

Independence Day was commemorated at the Institution in a grand celebration that filled the campus with patriotic fervour and ceremonial splendour. The occasion was graced by Mr. Sanjeev Srivastava, Principal, DAV Engineering College, Dr. Jay Kumar and Mr. Umesh Oraon, LMC Members, along with the special guest, Mr. Balam Oraon . Their esteemed presence lent distinction to the celebration. The ceremony commenced with National Song followed by hoisting of the National Flag . The National Anthem then rose in unison and lent the celebration an exalted beginning and setting the tone for honouring India's freedom with dignity and pride.

In her address, the Honourable Principal, MRS. INDRANI CHATTERJEE drew attention to the intrinsic connection between Patriotism and the purpose of Education. She observed that true education goes beyond academic accomplishment as it nurtures an awareness of one's duties towards the Nation and inspires young minds to value the freedom they have inherited. She urged the students to let their love for India find expression in their conduct and choices so that education may give direction to their responsibilities as citizens.

The Junior Wing students added warmth to the occasion with a spirited Patriotic song. This was followed by a riveting speech by Ayushi of Class XII-AB who articulated her reflections on the significance of Independence Day and the obligations that accompany freedom.

The Senior Wing students then presented another Patriotic song, lending a stirring musical dimension to the celebration.

The cultural highlight of the programme was Rani Lakshmi Bai – A Saga of Courage, a captivating dance drama portraying the valour and sacrifice of the legendary queen of Jhansi. Through expressive movement and evocative presentation, the performance brought alive the spirit of a remarkable figure from India's freedom struggle and left the audience profoundly moved.

The programme concluded with a Vote of Thanks , expressing gratitude to everyone whose presence and efforts contributed to the success of the celebration. The celebration left behind more than patriotic memories as it stirred in young minds the thought that the freedom inherited from the past must find its finest expression in the India they shape tomorrow.
