

M.K. DAV Public School, Daltonganj Bids Farewell to a Cherished Musical Journey

The Institution bid an affectionate farewell to Mr. Niraj Kumar Sinha, PRT Music, on the occasion of his superannuation after 31 years of dedicated service to the Institution. Having joined the school in 1995, Mr. Sinha became an integral part of its musical life, leaving behind a repertoire of memories shaped by his teaching, his music and his presence among colleagues and students.

The farewell ceremony carried a distinctly personal warmth as members of the school fraternity came together to mark the conclusion of his long professional journey. Mr. Alok Kumar, Supervisory Head, Senior Wing and Mrs. Meenakshi Karn, Supervisory Head, Junior Wing delivered thoughtful addresses recalling their experiences with Mr. Sinha and acknowledging the place he had come to occupy in the life of the Institution. Several colleagues also spoke from their personal experiences. Their words often giving way to emotion as they recalled moments spent with him over the years.

Music, naturally, became the language of the farewell. Mr. Sinha himself rendered a song bringing a particularly poignant touch to the occasion. His colleagues too sang in his honour and turned the occasion into a gentle musical tribute to a teacher whose professional life had itself been closely woven with melody.

As a token of appreciation, Mr. Sinha was presented with a memento and a shawl along with a box of dry fruits as gestures of regards and good wishes from the school. A trolley was also gifted to him on behalf of the Institution. Adding a more personal touch to the occasion, the teachers presented him with a handmade card bearing their handwritten good wishes making it a keepsake filled with affection rather than formality.

The farewell was marked by a rare blend of dignity and emotion. After more than three decades within the same Institution, the occasion was not merely a formal conclusion to service but a warm celebration of the relationships, memories and musical impressions gathered along the way.

The Honourable Principal, MRS. INDRANI CHATTERJEE, expressed her appreciation for Mr. Sinha's long association with the Institution and the contribution he had made to its cultural and academic life. She regarded his superannuation as the closing of an important professional chapter yet not the end of the place his music and memories would continue to hold in the school fraternity. She conveyed her good wishes for the years ahead hoping that this new phase of life would bring him time for the pursuits he cherishes, the company of those close to him and the quiet satisfaction of looking back upon a career given generously to the Institution.

The occasion concluded on an emotional note, with heartfelt good wishes accompanying Mr. Sinha as he stepped into a new chapter beyond the familiar corridors of the school.

