

M.K DAV Public School, Daltonganj Pays Tribute to Birsa Munda with Exquisite Sand Portrait during Janjatiya Gaurav Pakhwada

As part of the ongoing Janjatiya Gaurav Pakhwada, a magnificent sand portrait of Bhagwan Birsa Munda was created today by talented young artists of the school under the mentorship of Mr. Prabir Patra , one of the art teachers. The artwork which was made entirely of coloured sand beautifully depicted the valiant tribal hero whose courage and sacrifice continue to inspire generations.

The sand art was inspired by the traditional sand sculpting style of Odisha and it showcased intricate detailing and artistic finesse. The soft hues and delicate layering reflected the unique craftsmanship for which Orissan sand art is renowned turning the school courtyard into a canvas of culture and pride.

Speaking on the occasion, the Honourable Principal, Mrs. INDRANI CHATTERJEE , lauded the initiative and said that such artistic expressions help students connect deeply with the cultural and historical roots of the nation. She emphasized that celebrating Janjatiya Gaurav Pakhwada is a reminder of the invaluable contributions of tribal leaders like Birsa Munda to India's freedom and identity.

Bhagwan Birsa Munda, the revered tribal icon and freedom fighter ignited the flame of resistance against injustice and inspired generations to stand for dignity and identity. His life remains a timeless symbol of courage, sacrifice and love for the motherland. Through the delicate strokes of art, one can only attempt to capture a glimpse of his towering valour and indomitable spirit — a spirit that continues to inspire hearts and strengthen the pride of our nation.

